DEDICATION

To the one who first heard the wee small voice of a crying babe and, with a tenderness divine, responded to the call; whose unfailing love and devotion, whose constant and loving sacrifices, and whose earnest prayers have made possible a college education, we affectionately dedicate this, the eighteenth volume of L'ALLEGRO, to you

OUR DEVOTED MOTHERS

Mother o' Mine

If I were hanged on the highest hill,
Mother o' mine! O mother o' mine!
I know whose love would follow me still,
Mother o' mine! O mother o' mine!

If I were drowned in the deepest sea,
Mother o' mine! O mother o' mine!
I know whose tears would come down to me,
Mother o' mine! O mother o' mine!

If I were damned of body and soul,
Mother o' mine! O mother o' mine!
I know whose prayers would make me whole,
Mother o' mine! O mother o' mine!

—Rudyard Kipling.

FOREWORD

*That which is recorded in memory's wall may soon fade away;
But that which is recorded in the books of time
shall remain for aye.* —J. A. J.

We have endeavored to present, in the following pages, a record of the achievements during the past year.

If, in the dim, distant future, cherished memories of our days at Mississippi College may be awakened by the perusal of this, the 1924 L'ALLEGRO, so that we may once again live through our happy college days, then indeed shall our work not have been in vain, but we shall feel amply repaid for our efforts.

To those who, through their aid, have made this volume possible, we extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation.

The Coat Without a Seam

By A. J. AVEN

The rose with flush enchanting hue,
Like spectrum through the crystal dew,
Abounds with odors sweet.
The colors woven of the air,
And delicate beyond compare,
Show nature's work complete.

This blossom is throughout the earth,
Acknowledged queen of perfect worth,
Among the fragrant trees.
'Tis sacred to the Goddess, Love,
Who hangs, at eve, her lamp above,
To light her devotees.

The splendor of this balmy flower
Surpasses in its royal dower
A Naiad, Nymph, or Grace.
The mind replete with righteous thought,
And hand with service richly fraught,
Adorn the Holy Mace.

On cheek of peasant maid or queen
The sun and open air a sheen
Of native beauty trace.
The soul intent on deeds of gold
Disclosing daily courage bold
Stamps manhood on the face.

When men with God's their spirits twine,
It weaves, in tissues superfine,
THE COAT WITHOUT A SEAM.
The worth of woof the martyrs prove,
The strength of warp is Saviour's love
With power to redeem.

Book One: The College

“ . . . And let my due feet never fail
To walk the studious cloisters pale . . . ”

—Milton’s L’Allegro.

*"Where science first dawned on the powers of reflection,
And friendships were formed too romantic to last;
Where fancy will joy to trace the resemblance
Of comrades, in friendship and mischief allied;
How welcome to me your ne'er fading remembrance!"*

*L'Allegro
Mississippi College*

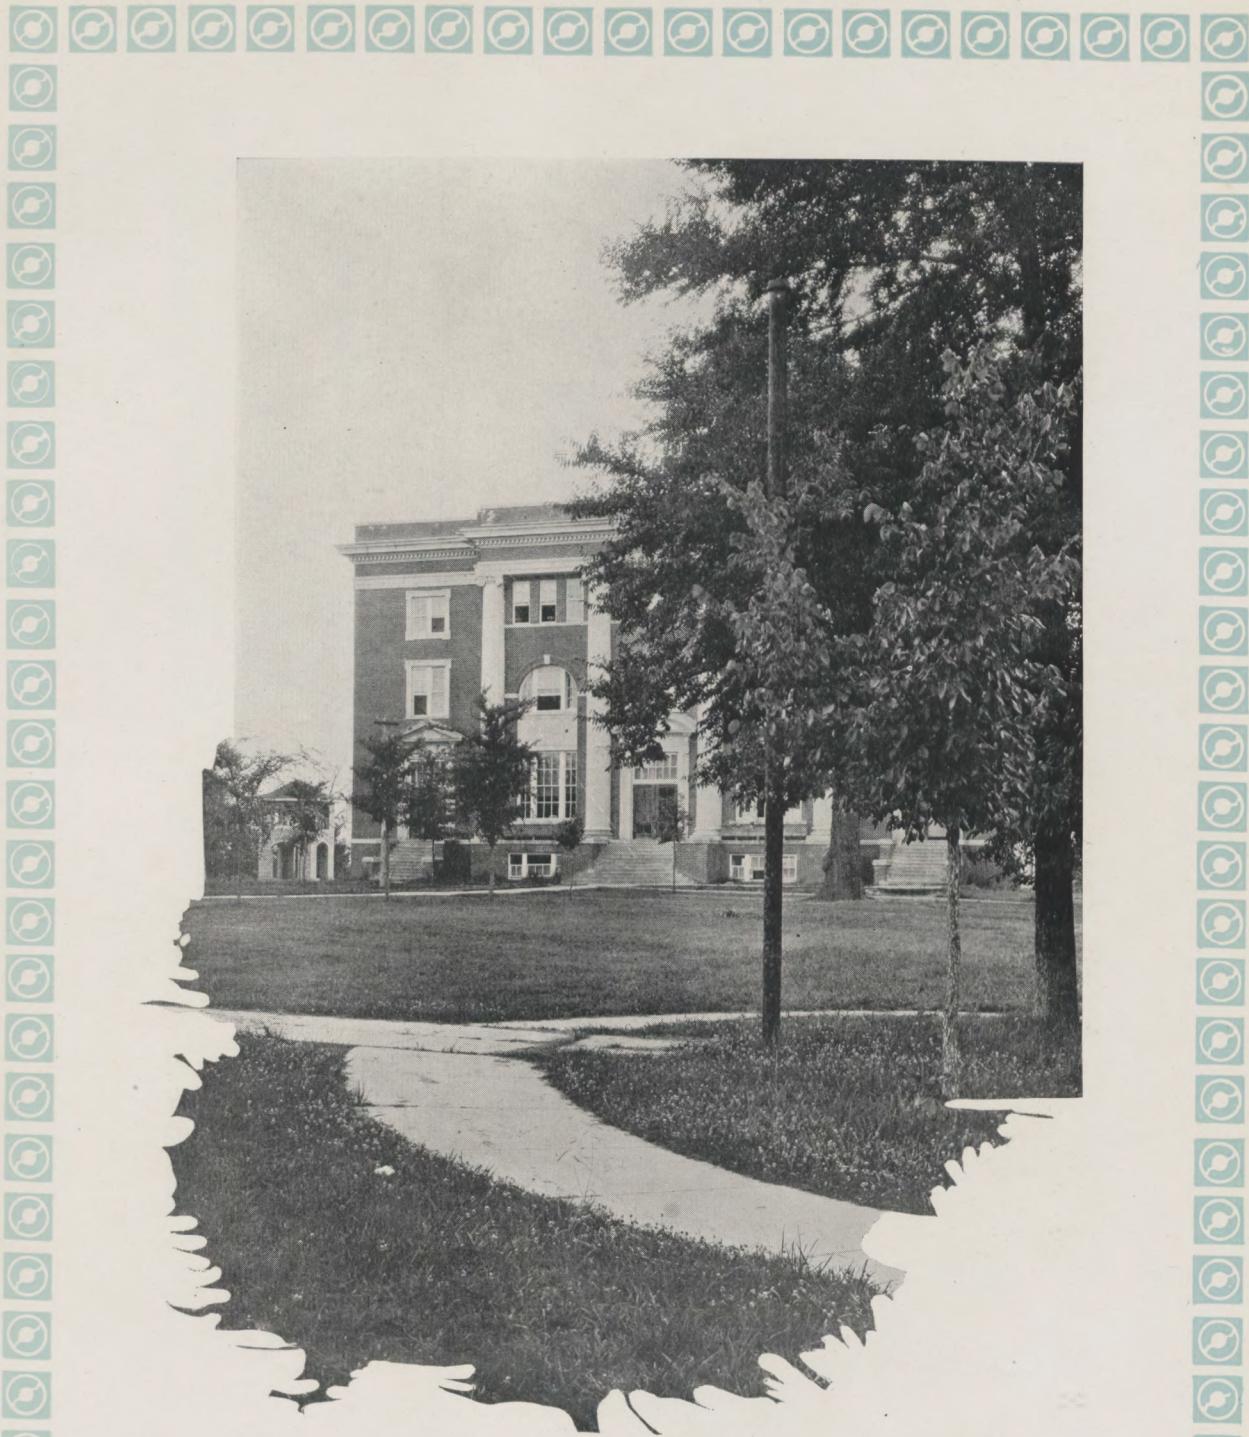

*"Wondrous is your massiveness,
And the scene of many gaieties."*

*L'Allegro
Mississippi College*

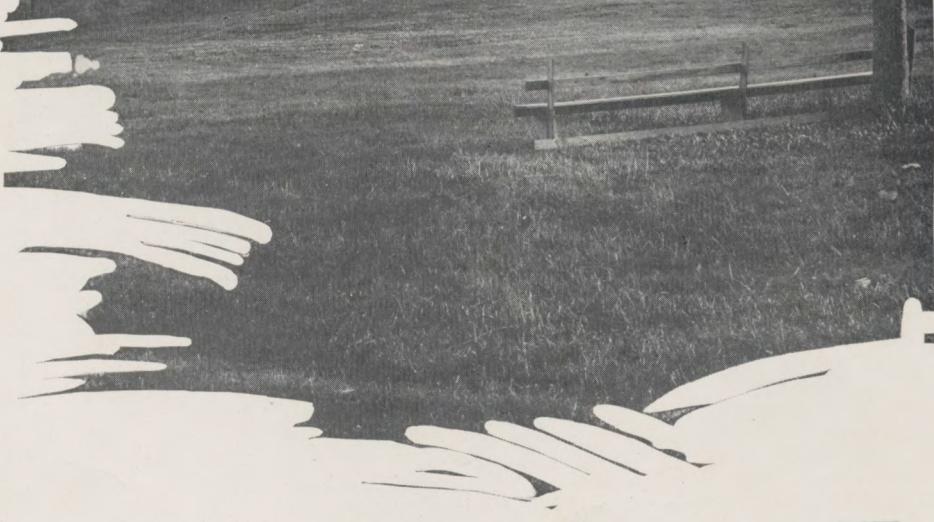

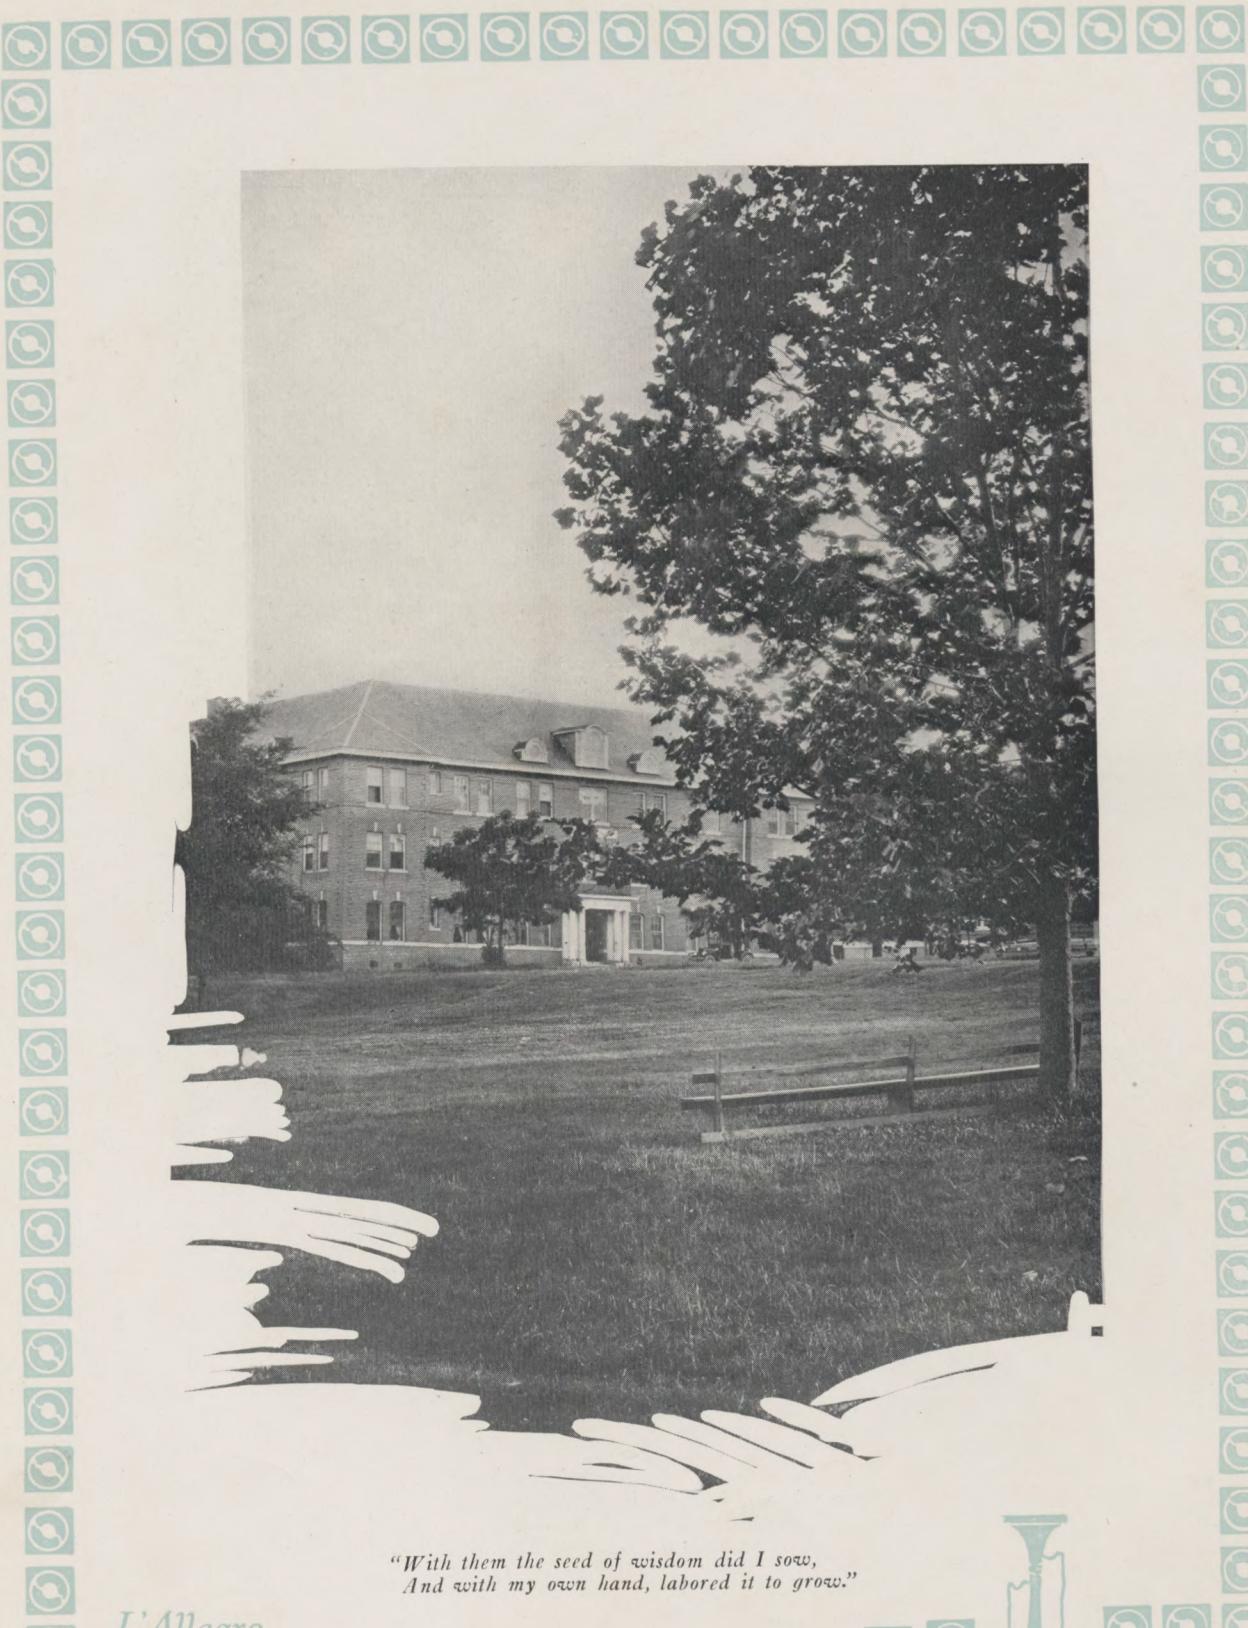

*"Books we know
Are a substantial world, both pure and good;
Round these, with tendrils strong as flesh and blood,
Our pastime and our happiness will grow."*

*L'Allegro
Mississippi College*

*"With them the seed of wisdom did I sow,
And with my own hand, labored it to grow."*

*L'Allegro
Mississippi College*

"The fundamental business of the College is, and always will be, intellect; but the personal business of every student is to see to it that he has a body which will serve intellect."

*L'Allegro
Mississippi College*

*"I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go into the house of the Lord."*

Our Alma Mater

Oh thou most holy Alma Mater, wheresoe'er
Our dwelling be—for in the courts of man
But seldom thine are—heavenly voice we hear,
Sweetening the moments of our narrow span;
And seldom thy bright imprints do we scan
Along the weary waste of life unblest.

'Tis thine when life has reached its final goal—
Ere the last sight that frees the mind be given—
To speak sweet solace to the parting soul,
And pave the bitter path that leads to heaven,
When the dark spirit of despair is given.

Yet, be it so, and be it all romance—
The thought of thine existence is so bright
With beautiful imaginings—the glance
Upon thy fancied being such delight
That I will deem the truth—so lovely is thy might!

Spirit of the Junior Class

I, the spirit of the Junior Class, rejoice, for one more short journey and the victory will have been won; the goal toward which my eyes have so longingly looked through these years will have been reached.

Even now can I hear the rejoicings in this land; their happy voices raised in laughter and song. I must hasten my footsteps and delay not, for that which I seek is near at hand; only a few more obstacles to surmount, and that which is most worthwhile in life will be mine.

They reach out welcoming hands and they, too, rejoice with me that I have conquered thus far. Truly the greatest happiness comes from the knowledge of a worth-while task well done.

Class Poem

'Tis strange, 'tis passing strange that Juniors,
So popular and handsome are,
For 'tis not long since they were Sophies,
Nor distant from the Freshmen far;
Remember Juniors are outstanding
And, in their own minds, are commanding.

'Tis strange, 'tis passing strange that Juniors,
Are the go with Hillman lassies,
But Hillman Seniors love the Juniors,
And think them 'bove the other classes;
First mortgage holds in litigation,
Throughout the world in every nation.

'Tis strange, 'tis passing strange that Juniors,
Display on faces pious looks,
But Juniors are forever hungry,
'Tis thus they camouflage the cooks;
And now you see that Juniors' handsome
Are made by paying heavy ransom.

'Tis strange, 'tis passing strange that Juniors,
So soon begin to lose their "pep,"
But Juniors soon hatch into Seniors,
And then must walk a languid step;
The Hillman Seniors cease to love them,
For last year's Sophs will stand above them.

Dr. “Little Bill” Weathersby: “As a matter of fact, I assigned you the next two chapters, but in view of the fact that the time is short this morning, I will give you a true and false test.”

Dr. “Ajax” Aven: “Now, boys, let me urge that you make your meetings brief.”

Dr. “Dutchie” Provine: “Aw, the dog’s hind foot! You bullies ought to be at home behind Ole Beck making cotton and corn.”

Dr. “Deemy” De Moss: “Now, men, that’s just bully.”

Dr. “Pat” Patterson: “In fact, I’m just a little partial to specific information.”

Prof. Hitt: “Men, this stuff isn’t hard at all; you are just determined to make it hard.”

Prof. Taylor: “No, sir; that is abso-u-tely wrong.”

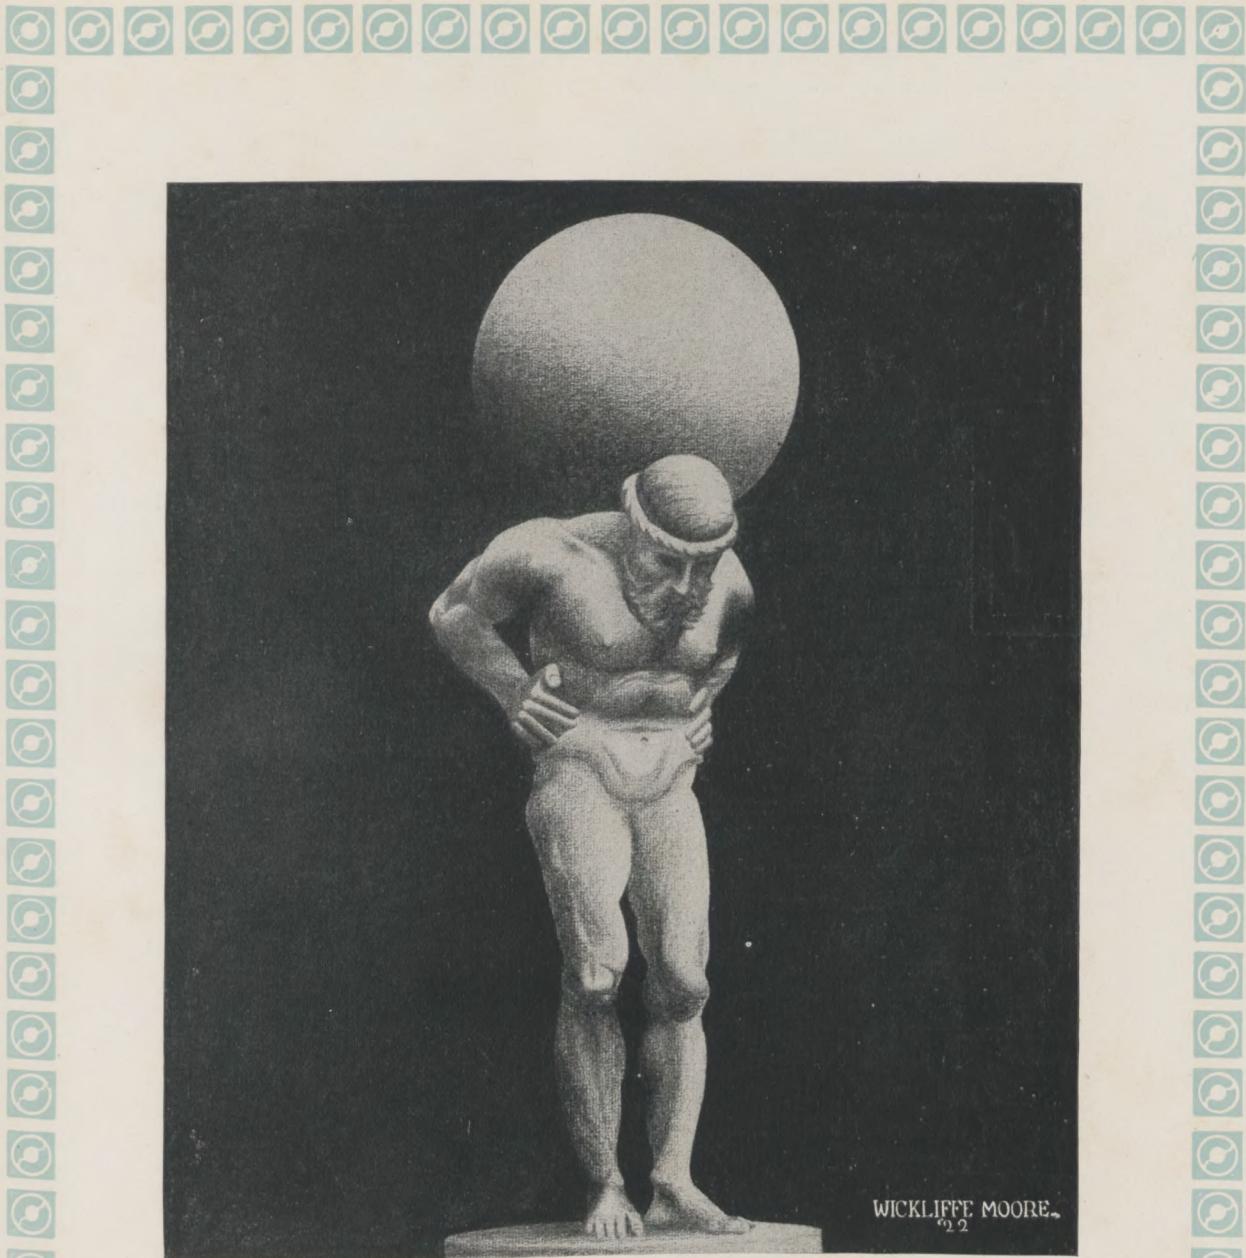

Prof. Graves: “Now the next thing to do is to add a little hydrochloric acid.”

Sophomore Class History

On September the thirteenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, there were one hundred and fifty stalwart braves born into the Choctaw wigwam, who were to become tried and faithful sons of our beloved Alma Mater. These papooses came from every nook and corner of the state, bringing with them numerous and unlimited abilities in athletics, music, literature, and in every phase of college life.

Under the leadership of James Davis, who had the welfare of the school and the class ever in mind, these meek and lowly Freshmen were organized into a mighty factor. Each Freshman immediately caught that old Choctaw spirit that binds us to dear M. C. with a tie stronger than an iron chain. The papoose teams made a clean sweep of their rigid schedule, leaving behind an enviable record in football, basketball and baseball. Although Freshman in name, the team was varsity in quality. The Freshmen were runners-up for the class championship, and showed great skill and spirit in all of their class games.

Our Freshman year was truly a bright and shining light in the upward progress of the Class of '26, but, as compared with the success and achievements of the present session, it is but the dim glow of a tallow candle. As the first call to class colors sounded this year the enthusiastic Sophomores rallied around their cause and did honor to themselves by choosing J. B. Smith as their president; H. G. Laird, vice-president; A. E. Sweeney, secretary. Under the guidance of these able leaders, who bent their every efforts to promote the interest of their class, the Class of '26 gave forth its best to their Alma Mater. Berry, Laird, Sweeney, Toler, and Kendall made letters on this year's varsity football team.

The Sophomore Class is well represented on the basketball squad, and will be equally represented on the baseball squad in the spring.

Not only in athletics, but in music, art, literature, and in the class rooms the record of the Sophomore Class shines out on the pages of class history.

We expect the two remaining laps of our journey to be filled with success and happiness.

Class Poem

One mile-stone passed, and three to go,
But duty bids us on;
I know the years seem awfully slow,
And the miles are mighty long.

But as we know it is for the best
That we travel this rocky course;
Let us complete the journey, not stopping for rest,
By using every effort and force.

Let us realize the aim of our study,
That while bearing these hardships and strife,
We are getting ourselves better fitted
To solve the problems of later life.

So, classmates, let us continue our course,
Helping each other in every way that we can,
But each with the determined motto,
"That he will make of himself a MAN."

Review of the Season

THE Choctaws of 1923 have finished their season and all is well. The Gold and Blue had one of the most remarkable seasons in the history of Mississippi College. A record of having only one opponent cross their goal line is an achievement of which our warriors may be justly proud.

The first of the Choctaw's opponents was Tulane University. For the first half, the Tribe led the Greenies, 3 to 0, but, in the long run, superior force told and the Green wave rolled over the Braves for an 18 to 3 victory.

The following week the Indians ventured into Alabama and trounced Birmingham-Southern, 19 to 0. Here Cy Parks earned the only mention received by a Mississippian for the mythical all-Southern eleven.

In the Howard game, with three minutes to play and the score 3 to 0, Parks, with a crippled knee, went in and returned a punt sixty yards for a touchdown and won the game, 7 to 3.

Louisiana College on the campus was the next game, and Lambright booted a perfect drop kick to win that game, 3 to 0.

The Choctaws next went to Vicksburg, where Louisiana State University battled them to a scoreless tie on a field of mud.

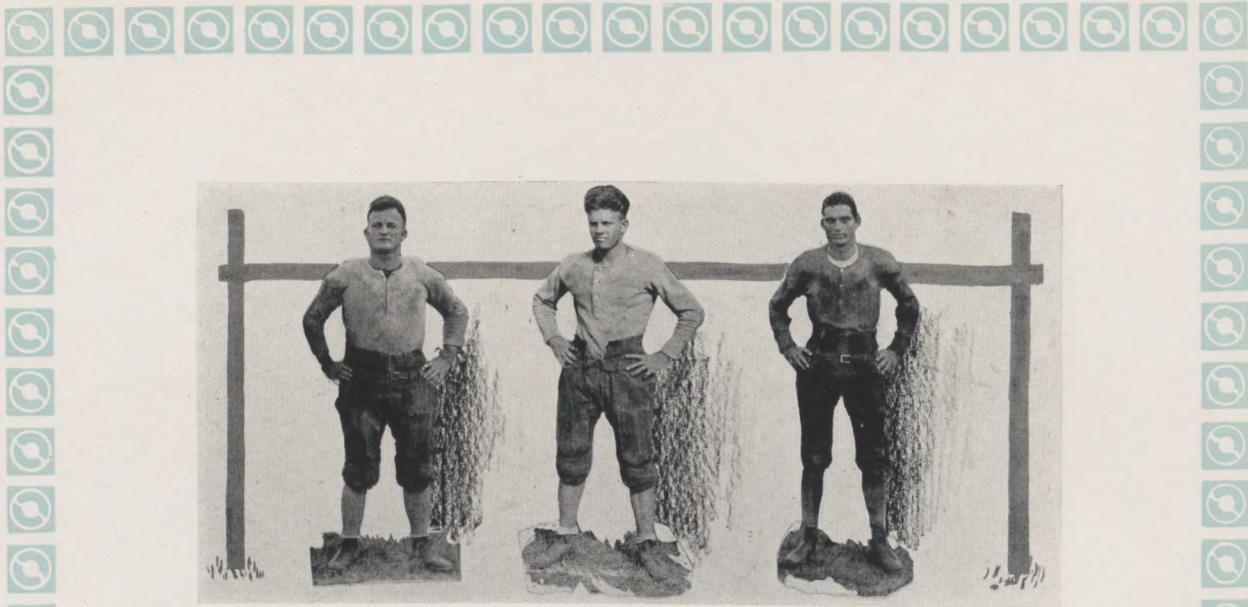

Next came the crowning event of the year when Ole Miss went down before the fighting Indians to the tune of 6 to 0. Parks, Sheffield and Long played a great game, and Ole Miss passers were completely humbled.

Coach Robinson then brought his Mercer team to the campus. The Choctaws, playing a game of co-operation and fight, carried them under, 15 to 0.

On Thanksgiving Day the Indians were held to a scoreless tie on another field of mud by Millsaps.

Captain Stuart, all-state tackle; Bailey, all-state end; Long and Hudson all finish with this season. However, the prospects are bright for even a better team next fall under the leadership of Captain-elect Cy Parks.

J. F. STUART, Captain, Tackle

"Rat" has led the team through the most successful season that has ever been recorded in the annals of Mississippi College. He was always ready when the whistle blew, and nothing pleased him more than to indulge in a clean, hard fight on the gridiron. "Rat's" ability has been recognized as can be seen from the fact that he was given a place on the mythical all-state eleven.

D. C. PARKS, Captain-elect, Quarter

"Cy" is one of the most valuable players that has ever been connected with a football team representing Mississippi College. His consistent ground gaining, pep and fight won for him the captaincy of next year's team, a position he justly deserves. "Cy" bids fair to become one of the South's foremost players next year, and should make a splendid leader.

R. H. SHEFFIELD, Center

Sheffield is a grid warrior of true merit. He passes true and is never lacking in pep and fight. It is impossible to appreciate his ability as a fighter until one sees him in action. He always plays the game fair, consistent, co-operating with his teammates, and fighting to the last down. This is his third year to be a member of the varsity, and he has done great work for the Choctaw team.

R. L. LAMBRIGHT, Quarter

This completes Lambright's third year as a varsity player. Bob is a great punter and passer. More than once has his toe added points to the Choctaw score, while on several occasions he is credited with a victory when he booted the ball between the bars. Bob is a three-letter man, and we are expecting better work next year.

T. H. KENDALL, Half

"Ox" is a line plunger of great ability. He runs low and has an unusually hard drive. Few lines have succeeded in holding him. "Ox" has two more years in college, and from the start he made on the gridiron this year, he is sure to win honors for himself and his college.

J. F. BAILEY, End

"Wop" is another three-letter man, and one of the most valuable and reliable men on the football team. He is fast on going down on punts, a sure tackler, and receives passes well. After playing every minute of every game this past fall, "Wop" turned in his togs for the last time as a Choctaw gridiron man. When the call comes next fall he will be greatly missed.

H. G. LAIRD, Guard and Tackle

"Mama" came to the varsity from last year's Freshman eleven. With his pep, fight and hard work, combined with natural ability as a football guard and tackle, he has been one of the most valuable players on the team this year. He played great ball, both offensively and defensively, and greater things are expected of him in his two remaining years.

W. C. HUDSON, Tackle

"Pinch" has played tackle for four years, and it is with regret that we see him finish this year. He takes delight in smashing through his opponents' line and throwing the backs for losses. He has grit, fight and determination, and these qualities have always combined and worked for the good of the Choctaw teams.

W. C. HESTER, Halfback

Hester was a star in class football last year. His work on the varsity was equally as good. His side-stepping, speed, line-plunging, and ability to snag passes were factors in a number of the tribe's victories. His defensive work was good.

C. B. BERRY, End

"Pluck" is another product of last year's Freshman team. He, like Bailey, played every minute of every game this year, and proved his ability in every game. He receives passes to perfection, and few opponents succeed in going around his end. "Pluck" will be back next fall to carry on his spectacular work.

G. E. LONG, Fullback

Playing all but three minutes of the entire season, Evon's presence was felt disastrously by the opposition, and very favorably by the Choctaws. His backing of the line was superb, his interference strong, his ability to break up passes spectacular, and his plunges over guard and off tackle netted the Indians first downs at opportune moments. Should Long elect to stay out next season, indeed, he will be greatly missed.

N. K. TOLAR, Halfback

"Gal" played center for the Freshmen last year, was shifted to guard the first of this year, but so marked was the ferociousness of his attacks and the relentlessness of his drives that he was shifted to the backfield. He played the remainder of the season at half, where he accounted for numerous downs.

K. T. WROTON, Guard

In "War Horse" Wroton, Mississippi College has a man worthy of all the praise which it is possible to give him. He is a most dependable guard and has played in every game of the season. "War Horse" has proven himself to be instrumental in our victories this season and we hope to see him at his old position next fall.

H. B. BROCK, Guard

After two years of excellent scrub playing, "Burt" has come into his own as a varsity man. Playing good football from the opening of the season, he never failed to do his bit when called upon. He is a great fighter, never gives in, and his spectacular flying tackles have prevented opponents from scoring on several occasions.

A. E. SWEENEY, Halfback

"Red" was a mainstay in the backfield. His punting and passing was of high caliber; his line bucks good; in fact, his all-round work makes him one of the team's most valuable assets. As he came from last year's Freshman team, it is expected that he will be even better in his two remaining years.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL TEAM

Resume of the Season

The Blue and Gold tossers were considered among the strongest quints of the S. I. A. A. this year. By virtue of their victory over Newberry, after being eliminated in the semi-final by Mercer, they clinched the third position. In the contest for state honors the Choctaws gained but little. They won three out of four games from Millsaps, but dropped two games to Ole Miss on their campus.

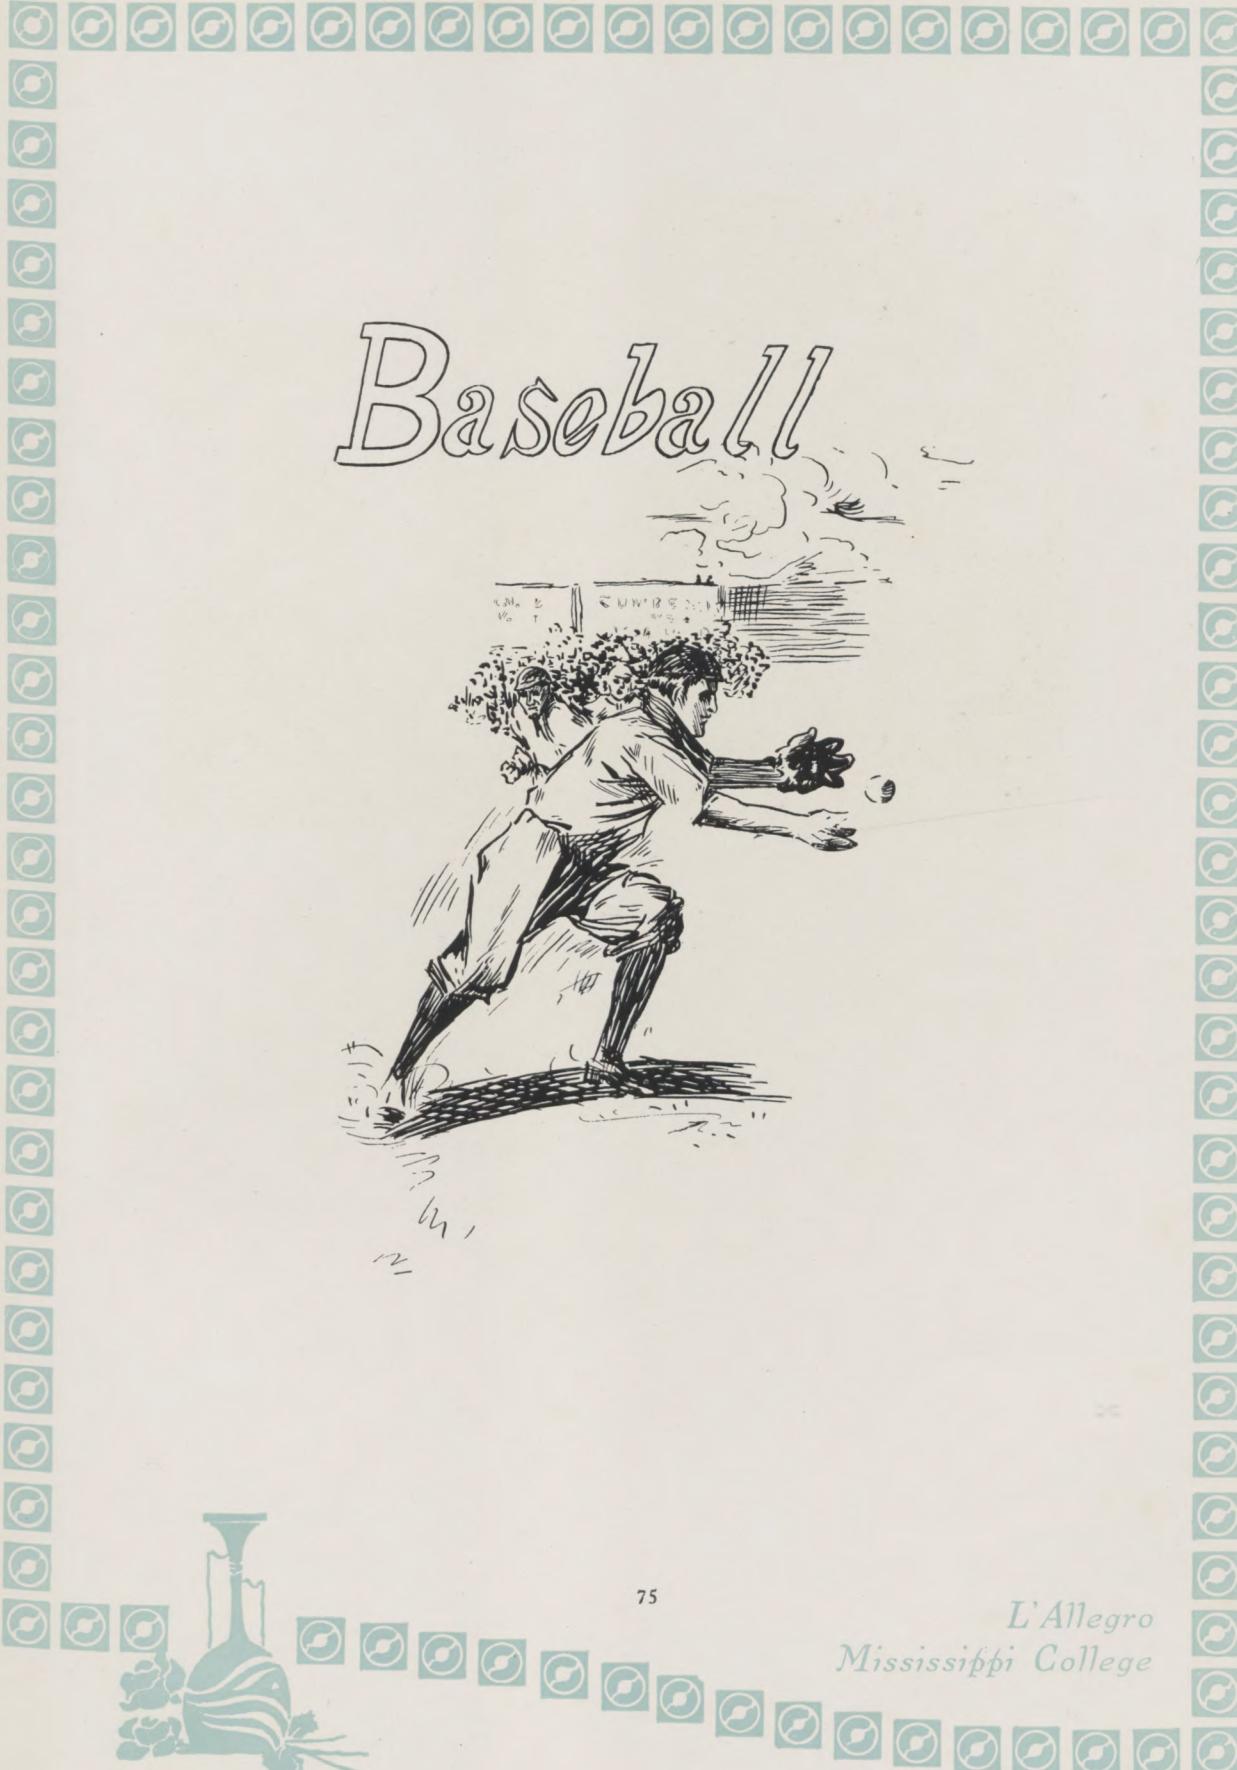

PARKER, BERRY, DUNCAN, JENKINS

Cy Parks, veteran guard, was one of the most consistent players in the S. I. A. A. and instilled a brand of pep into the team that made up in fight what it lacked in experience. Bailey held down the other guard position in a highly creditable manner, while Ball and Duncan were ever ready to take up where they left off.

Captain Laird at center, Berry and Johnson, forwards, and Jenkins, sub-forwards—products of last year's Freshman team—played a consistent brand of basketball. Another season will find them playing stellar ball and will, in all probability, make a formidable bid for S. I. A. A. honors.

In basketball, as it was in football, it has been the aim, more toward laying the foundation of a team, than toward a successful season, measured by the number of games won and lost.

CAPTAIN DICKENS

BASEBALL TEAM

Standing: LYON, CLARK, BAILEY, AUSTIN, DICKENS, LAMBRIGHT, BALL.
Kneeling: HUGGINS, MORRIS, BUSBY, HAMILTON, LEE.

Review of Baseball Season

WITH twelve victories, six defeats and two tie games, the 1922 Choctaw baseball team completed a fairly successful season. Ole Miss and Wofford were the only two opponents to win a series of games.

Dickins was chosen to hold down the initial bag and captain the team. The pitching of Clark and Lambright was superb, while Austin, performing behind the bat, worked like a veteran. With "Jakie" Lyon at third, Huggins at short, and Hamilton at second, completed one of the fastest infields that ever played on Provine Field.

The first game was with Nashville of the Southern League, and proved to be a mere practice game for the Vols. Next we dropped a game to Ole Miss on the campus, 3 to 0. At McComb City we tied one and won one from L. S. U. We won from Millsaps, 8 to 3, and the next day lost to Vicksburg, 3 to 0, after 14 innings. Millsaps lost another game and Wisconsin came for two games, losing the first and tying the second. We won from University of Florida at Brookhaven, 8 to 0, and the following day on the campus, 8 to 1.

Ole Miss next won one and lost one on their campus, and the team departed for the northern trip, where they won three out of five games.

Track

Track athletics in Mississippi College, as in all other small Southern colleges, is somewhat below the rank of other major sports, both in popularity and in interest.

Our cinder men worked hard last season for recognition, and were rewarded with the varsity "M."

With the construction of a cinder track next spring, track should take its proper place in the athletic circles of our school. An attractive schedule is being arranged.

Junior Class Poem

One year that has swept by on rose-tipped wings,
One year! And one such lovely year
Wherein each sun-browned hill, each bird that sings
From gnarled oaks, but more endears
Thee to our hearts, and to us ever brings
A spirit one with thee, dear college home!

One year wherein we have disciples been
Of those whose patient kindness
Has brought to us a larger life than men
Have found in books alone, where friendliness
Hath taught us wisdom, peace, and joy; wherein
We each to each are bound by thee, dear home!

One year is gone! And now that we have come
So near the end of all we love
We tremble lest we lose one moment from
A too-brief year; yet we shall prove
With such a heritage, some spirit, some
Ideal of thine shall guide our lives, dear home!

YOUNG WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

BANNIE HESTER . . . . . Running Center

A versatile "basketeer," a dandy wherever you put her, especially when you put her in the center.

EDITH NETTLES . . . . . Guard

When Edith gets to guarding there might as well not be a basket—no balls go through it. In addition to her being an A-1 guard, Edith has captained her team to brilliant success.

BILLIE GRIFFITH . . . . . Guard

Although she did not play in every game, just our knowledge that she was there, dependable to the end, an efficient guard in time of trouble, was enough.

GERTRUDE HALL . . . . . Jumping Center

Gertrude puts every ounce of energy into the game she is playing. Her surety in knocking the ball just in the right place added to her stickability and helped the varsity team win its fame.

GRACE KNIGHT . . . . . Forward

Grace is an expert in pass work, and is an A-1 mate for Cora. To anyone who has seen her play, it is unnecessary to mention the beautiful "long-distant shot" which is the feature of her playing.

BELL BIGGS . . . . . Guard

A mate for "Captain Nettles," a "jumping jack" who always jumps in the right place—squarely in front of her forward.

LUCY JOHNSTON . . . . . Running Center

One of those Freshmen who, day by day, in every way, gets better and better. Some day, when she wins fame, we'll puff up with pride because "we knew her."

CORA McCULLOUGH . . . . . Forward

Veritably a "shooting star" who never misses her target. It is a joy to all our opponents to know that "that tall blonde" has played her last game for Hillman.

RUTH LOVELL . . . . . Jumping Center

Just as good guard as center and just as good forward as guard—and that's saying some for Ruth.

MRS. "BABY JOHN" KING . . . . . Coach

All the success, all the praise, all the honor, that our team has been fortunate to receive is due to the faithful work and patience of our coach. We love her in the classroom, but we marvel at her on the court. There is no end to our appreciation of "Miss Mary Bell" and our gratitude to her for all.

Basketball Review

ASKETBALL heads the list of Hillman sports. With the beginning of fall, until the last of February, basketball was the center of interest. The record of the season is one of the most successful and most brilliant that Hillman has ever known, and is one she is proud of.

The season started with a decisive victory over Ole Miss on November 17th, when Hillman scored 27 to the University Co-ed's 17. The old saying about "a good beginning makes a bad ending" does not hold true in the case of Hillman basketeers, for they were victorious from start to finish, having lost only two games out of eleven that were played up until the time that the Annual went to press.

The second game of the season was played with Millsaps co-eds, and our team victoriously defeated them with a score of 47 to 11.

Thanksgiving day was a memorial one. Hillman's team had never showed such pep and enthusiasm as in the match game with Clark Memorial College at Newton. The scoreboard registered the figures of 47 to 5 in Hillman's favor.

In the second battle with Clark Memorial, when we met her on our local court, January 9th, our ability as basketeers made possible the score of 62 to 5.

The basketeers met their first defeat on January 17th in the game between Normal College and Hillman. This game came during examination week and found our team out of condition, and the Normalites won a one point victory in the score of 26 to 25.

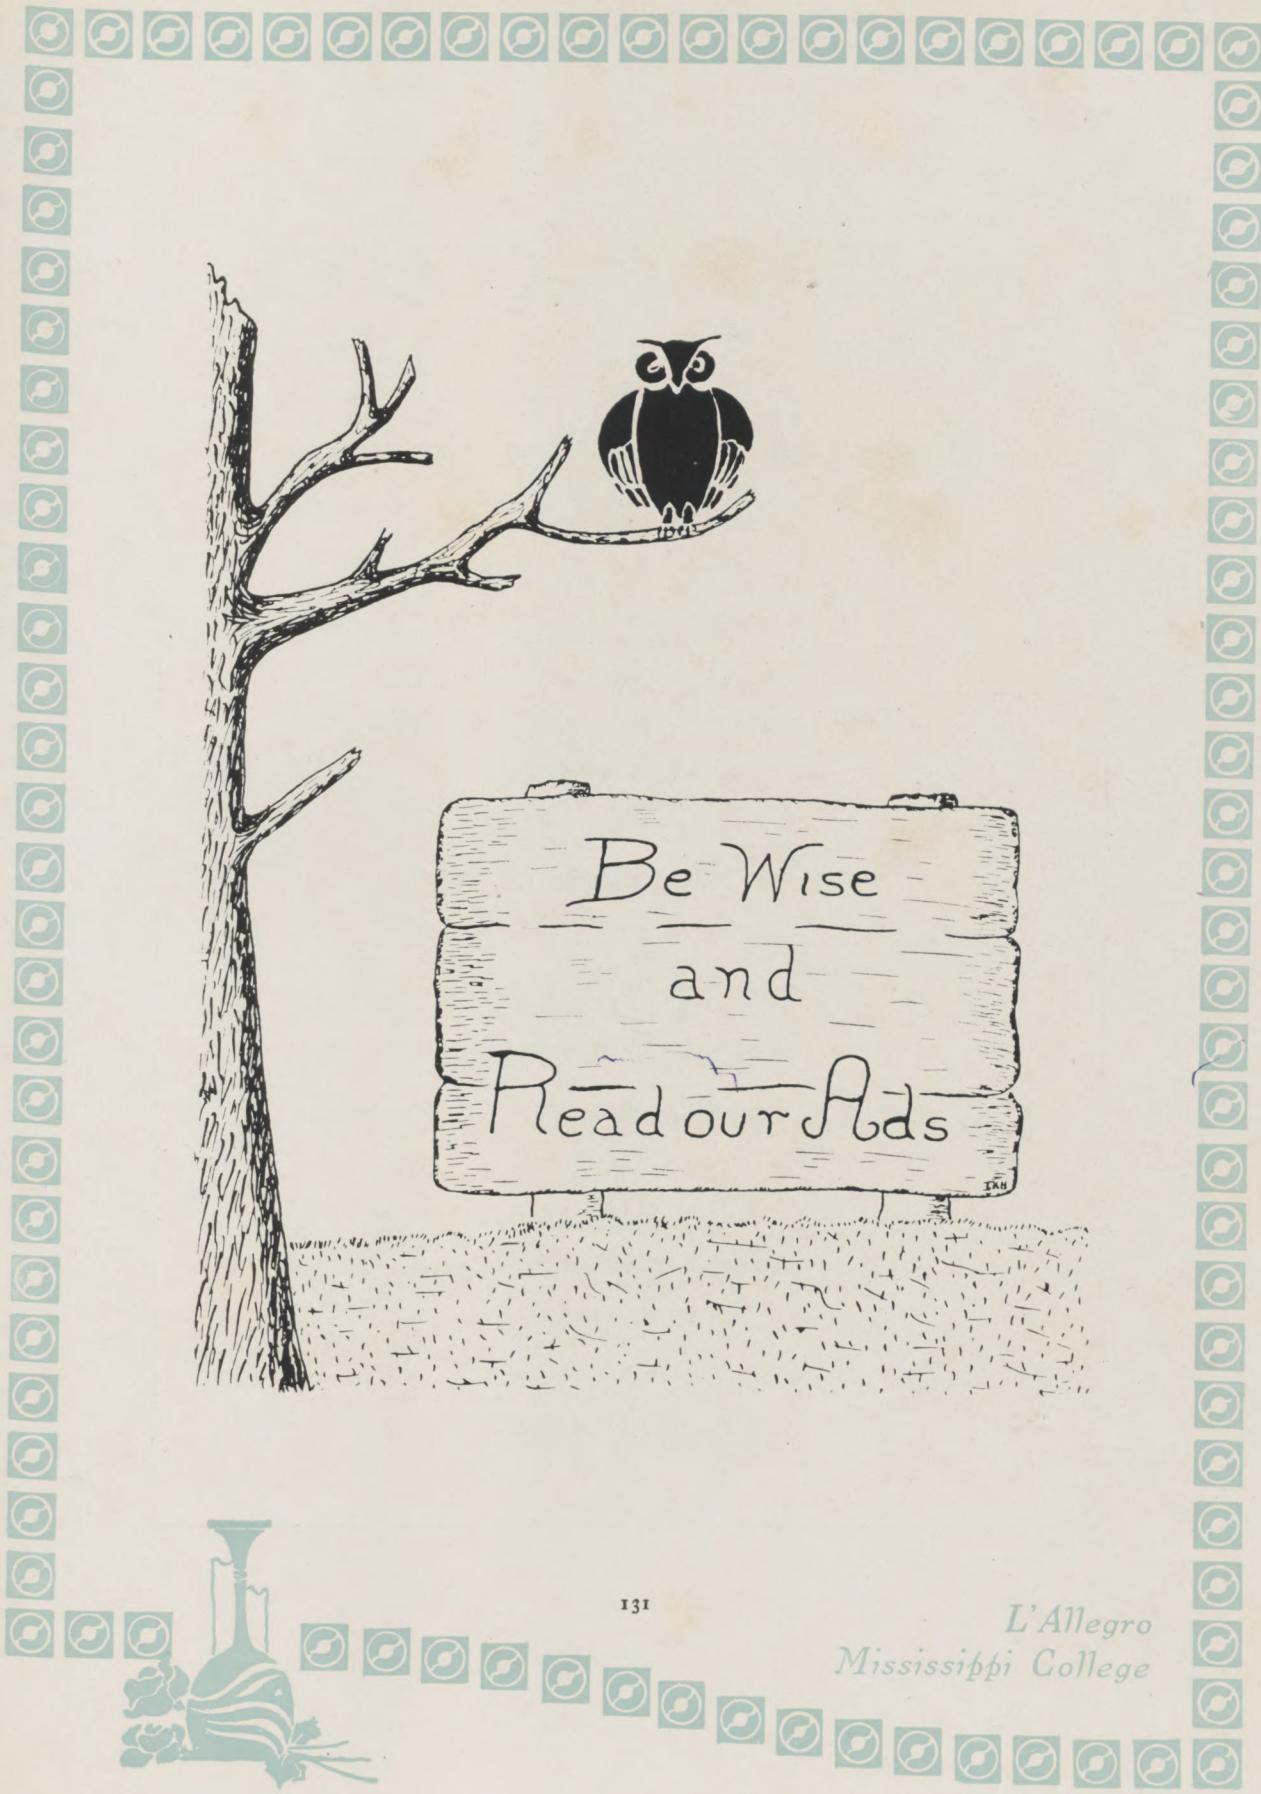

The next game was played February 1st on St. Frances Xavier's court, and again our team was there with speed and pep. They came home with victory, due to the brilliant playing of each individual which ran the score up to 32, and kept their opponents down to 5.

On February 4th the basketeers left for a tour of the northern part of the state, visiting the University, College Hill and Grenada. The trip proved a most successful and enjoyable one, and the team returned with most satisfying reports, adding three more victories to our list.

The sensational game of the season was fought on our field February 12th with Mississippi Woman's College, where Hillman met her second defeat. The game was close from start to finish, and both teams worked with an indomitable spirit, and until the very last the score, although close, showed Hillman in the lead. However, at the end of the last quarter the scoreboard registered 20 to 19 in favor of M. W. C. We did not know that teams could be so perfect, that centers could be so quick, that forwards could be so accurate, and that guards could be everywhere at once as in the well matched game between Woman's College and Hillman.

On the afternoon of February 21st, the speedy little team easily and decidedly defeated the Grenada College team for the second time. The Hillman six played with vigor and vitality until the score was piled above that of their opponents, when they began to weaken, allowing Grenada to score until the final tally stood 23 to 12 in favor of Hillman.
